ST. JOHNS, N. F., June 20.—(By the United Press)—How a liner, half crippled and slowly sinking, raced against time with her 700 passengers through a blind fog off the New England coast, and won, was told after two lumber steamers found their way into this port last night after colliding in the fog off Cape Race. The vessels were the Italian steamer Cara Columbus, which crept into port with her forward peak driven back to the forecastle by the force of the collision, and the Canadian-Pacific liner Metagama, bearing 700 passengers bound for Montreal from Glasgow. The Metagama, listing heavily to port with the rushing water gaining on a gal in St. John's Harbor. Both ships reported that loss of life had been averted in the crash. Ohioans Start Big Boom To Nominate Jas. M. Cox

THESE COMMUNISTS CONTROLLED CONVENTION

NEW YORK, June 20.—(By the United Press)—Ohioans here for the Democratic convention started booming former Governor James M. Cox, of Dayton, today for the presidential nomination. Confident that preliminary balloting will eliminate William G. McAdoo and Al Smith, a group of the former governor's Ohio friends are actively on the job, determined to trim him out of the "Dark Horse" stable. In addition to opening a large headquarters on the street floor of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel and plastering all the lobbies with "This Way To Cox Headquarters" signs, these friends are talking Cox in a manner which indicates he might prove a surprise as a contender. The Cox sentiment is growing steadily, they claim, and the former governor may have a real chance to demonstrate whether he can stage a comeback. Newton D. Baker, of Cleveland, who will nominate the Ohioan, is being counted upon to start the blaze of enthusiasm which he hopes will prove contagious. Reports from Ohio that Cox would be deserted by Ed H. Moore, Cleveland, former national committeeman, and George A. White, Marietta, present quartermaster, were denied vigorously today by White, speaking for himself and Moore.

Rhode Island G.O.P. Senators To Leave State

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 20.—(By the Associated Press)—As a result of the flooding with poisonous gas of the senate chamber yesterday and the collapse of five senators, the Republican senators announced through the state central committee today that they were leaving the state and would not sit in the senate chamber until means were taken to protect them. "This is an honest 'to goodness' fight against mob rule and mob violence," William C. Peck, chairman of the Republican state central committee said. "We are not going to give in until we are assured that the Republican senators will not have their lives endangered. Until the executive head of this state and the lieutenant governor are willing to carry out their duties and preserve order in the state house, the Republican senators will refuse to attend the sessions here."

Senator Floors a Noted Surgeon In Golf Quarrel

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—(By the United Press)—A fierce encounter between Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, minority leader in the senate, and Dr. James E. Mitchell, nationally known surgeon on the Chevy Chase Club Golf Links, has all Washington agog. Robinson won by a knockout. Only one blow was exchanged, the one by which the statesman floored the physician. Neither party was communicative about it today. Robinson said "the incident is to be regretted, while Mitchell would say nothing at all. The clash occurred late yesterday when a threesome composed of Mitchell, Colonel Edward Clifford, former assistant secretary of the treasury and his son "passed through" a foursome match made up of Robinson and Senators Tom Walsh, of Montana, Jones, of New Mexico, and Kendrick, of Wyoming, Democrats.

Mellon's Blocking of Kenyon's Nomination Stirs Up Deep Resentment In Western States

(BY DAVID LAWRENCE)
(Copyright, 1924, By Times Publishing Company)
CHICAGO, June 19.—The West—and particularly Iowa, is just now learning the inside story of how the nomination of Judge William S. Kenyon for the vice presidency on the Republican ticket was blocked. From returning delegates and their friends the details have been pieced together and it would appear that resentment over the active part taken by Judge Kenyon in the fight against Senator Newberry of Michigan, together with an old grievance of Secretary Mellon against the Iowa leader, are held primarily responsible. The delegates say that when President Coolidge indicated his desire to have Judge Kenyon nominated, the secretary of the treasury promptly telephoned the White House in protest. "I'm thankful to Andy Mellon," is the common Judge Kenyon has recently made about the affair to his friends for he is well satisfied with the federal bench and did not wish his name to go before the convention. But Iowa is not thankful to Secretary Mellon, on the contrary the incident has provoked so much discussion that it may have a hearing on the campaign in the west. There is a theory here that the secretary of the treasury is not a native son of the state. (Continued on Page Three)

Religious Issue Causing Democratic Leaders Much Worry; Anti-Smith Forces Border On a Panic

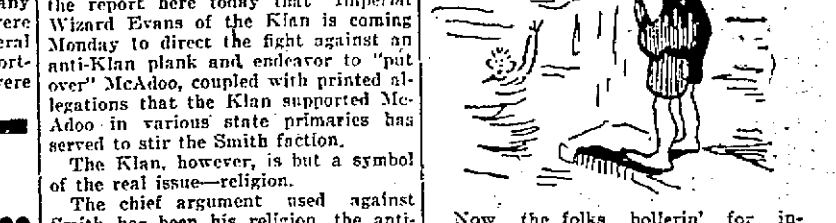

(BY ROBERT J. BENDER)
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, June 20.—(By the United Press)—The religious issue, which for some weeks has been simmering under the surface of Democratic pre-convention politics, is now being cast up. Party leaders, who have joined in agitating the Klan issue, are now making little political medicine than anything else, now are somewhat disturbed lest it defeat its own ends, react unfavorably on certain candidates the leaders support and create greater difficulty for the party. There is no doubt that Klan question has been flung in the face of the McAdoo forces to help subside, if possible, the superb confidence that saturates the atmosphere about the Vanderbilt Hotel. From the beginning, Democratic leaders who have party success more at heart than the interests of any one candidate have sought in vain to put a question on the Klan question. Democratic success in such states as Indiana and Ohio would be seriously jeopardized if the Klan issue should bring about a party split. But the situation is now getting beyond their control. George E. Brown, Illinois leader, has become insistent for a plank in the platform denouncing the Klan by name. The Underwood forces are adding fuel to the fire. And the report here today that Imperial Wizard Evans of the Klan is coming Monday to direct the fight against an anti-Klan plank, has endeavored to "put over" McAdoo, coupled with printed allegations that the Klan supported McAdoo in various state primaries has served to stir the Smith faction. The Klan, however, is but a symbol of the real issue—religion. The chief argument used against Smith has been his religion, the anti-Smith crowd contending that, even if nominated, the New York man could not be elected because the religious issue would be injected into the campaign. And, despite their confident predictions that McAdoo cannot command more than 450 votes at any time, the forces opposed to the former secretary of the treasury are beginning to fear that the somewhat extravagant claims of the McAdoo managers are based on a firmer foundation than was at first believed. Even the most ardent Smith supporters conceded that he will be unable to muster more than 300 votes at the peak. This situation has thrown the anti-McAdoo crowd into something approaching a panic. Desperate efforts will be made to drag "Favorite Sons" opposed to McAdoo out of the race. The argument is made that they have no chance but should they stubbornly remain in the race McAdoo might suddenly develop the strength he claims and his nomination become a fact.

HEAT WAVE CONTINUES; 97 RECORDED

Prohibition, Ku Klux Klan and World Court To Be Main Fighting Points in Drafting Platform

BY ROBERT J. BENDER
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Despite McAdoo, Smith and "Dark Horses" talk now dominating the hotel lobbies, the first big fight in the Democratic convention will come up on the question of basic principles and will be shaped before the resolutions committee.

Before proceeding to the selection of a candidate, the Democrats, it is realized must decide:

First—Whether the platform shall match that of the Republicans in conservatism in appealing to business interests, or shall be called radical or progressive.

Second—Whether it shall be wet or dry, without reservation.

Third—Whether it shall be definitely anti-Klan, or straddle.

Fourth—Whether the League of Nations issue shall be revived as a counter proposal to the Republican World Court plank.

Fifth—What shall be said with respect to the farm situation and what concrete proposals shall be made for relief.

It is realized that the platform may condemn corruption in public office as much as it likes, in referring to the Republican administration, but the five points outlined above must be settled if votes are to be maintained. With these issues determined the task will then be to select a candidate who may be accepted as a personification of the platform.

William Jennings Bryan is determined upon a progressive platform.

Having a seat as delegate from Florida, he may be expected to wield a big influence in the convention, especially in consideration of the wet and dry question.

To Score Republican Irregularities

NEW YORK, June 20.—(By the A. P.)—Scandal in the administration of government affairs, as disclosed by senate investigations occupies the dominant place in a tentative Democratic platform in process of drafting by a group of party leaders for submission to the World Court; agriculture and economy in government expenditures coupled with tax reduction are subjects to be dealt with in other principal planks.

Prohibition, the Ku Klux Klan issue and foreign affairs probably will form the main fighting points before the resolutions committee.

The present tentative draft of the platform omits specific mention of prohibition but contains a plank with a strong declaration for enforcement. There is no mention of the Ku Klux Klan.

Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon League and representative of the association against the prohibition amendment already are on the ground and promise to make a strong fight for specific declarations by the party. Leaders do not hesitate to say, however, that there is little probability for success for either organization.

Views of a group of Democratic senators at Washington on the platform have been brought here by Senator Pittman of Nevada, who has assisted in preparing the tentative draft. Others engaged in the work include Homer S. Cummings, of Connecticut, who is the chairman of the resolutions committee; Senator Glass of Virginia, chairman of the committee four years ago; Chairman Hull of the Democratic National Committee; J. Bruce Kremer of Montana; Norman E. Mack of New York, and Walter Moore of Alabama.

The foreign relations plank as it now shapes up after conferences among these and other leaders reaffirms in general the foreign policies of the Democratic party as they have been laid down over a period of years and severely assails the policies of the present administration.

With regard to the World Court, its plank as it now stands directly accuses the Republican party of equivocation and declares it is attempting to lift bodily a cardinal Democratic policy by advocating membership in the court.

Some of the Wilson followers, including Senator Glass of Virginia, would like to see in the platform a repudiation of the league plank of 1920. There has been some spirited discussion over the proposal and it is possible that the fight may be carried to the convention floor. The leaders generally, however, are frowning on the plan, holding that the position of the party has been so well defined that a reaffirmation in general terms only would be sufficient.

Wayne B. Wheeler, declared in a formal statement that a wet plank would have "no more show here than at Cleveland."

"I think the convention will adopt a law enforcement plank," he said, "and defeat any beer and wine candidate for the head or tail of the ticket."

"BABY BANDITS" TAKE $500 FROM U. S. MARSHAL AND DEPUTY; TASTE FOR CANDY LEADS TO CAPTURE

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., June 20.

(By the United Press).—A childish taste for candy today defeated the escape of two boy bandits after they had succeeded in taking $500 in cash and diamonds valued at $2,000 away from a United States marshal and his deputy in a bold robbery on a Pullman car twenty miles east of here last night.

After the robbery the boys jumped off the train and fled in the darkness.

The marshal, James Eber, and his deputy, William Sinell, ordered the train stopped and gave chase, but apparently the boys had made good their escape.

Today a farmer living near here drove into town in a river with the two boys who gave their names as "Compton" and "Chamberlain," 12 and 15 years of age respectively. They said their homes were in Tulsa, Okla.

The farmer said the boys had stopped him enroute to Parkersburg and asked for a ride. He picked them up and started into town. On the outskirts, the boys asked to be let out at a grocery store "to buy some candy."

Waiting outside the farmer learned from friends that his two passengers resembled the boys wanted for holding up the government officers. Without displaying his suspicions, the farmer drove direct to the county jail and turned the two bandits over to the sheriff. They admitted the robbery.

"We were just traveling," the boys told authorities.

"Our first names don't make no difference to you guys. Understand, we ain't no common kids. We're hard."

The "Baby Bandits" were sitting across the aisle from the officers in a Pullman car on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad last night coming into Parkersburg.

Several of the berths in the car had been made up, and the curtains obstructed the view of other passengers.

"Suddenly the boys jumped to their feet and the older one pointed a revolver at us and told us to 'Give us all you got,'" Eber said.

"We were more startled than frightened, so we handed over our valuables. I had $300 in bills and Sinell had $200 and we were both wearing diamonds."

"The train was slowing down for a stop and after cramming the money and diamonds into their pockets, the little scamps ran toward the back of the car. We got up and followed but all we could find was an open door on the vestibule where they had jumped off. I pulled the cord to stop the train, but when we stopped, the boys were gone. It was a hopeless search. They had run away in the dark."

At the county jail after their arrest the youngsters were defiant and wanted to "see that farmer who tricked us."

The "Baby Bandits" had only $100 and the diamonds on them when arrested. They refused to tell what they had done with the remaining $300.

Authorities believe the boys gave fictitious names.

Jap Salesman Dragged From Home and Threatened With Tar and Feathers

LOS ANGELES, CALIF., June 20.

(United Press).—Anti-Japanese feeling came to a head here during the night when a Japanese automobile salesman in the Belvedere section was dragged from his home and threatened with tar and feathers.

Arrival of a squad of deputy sheriffs prevented the raiders from carrying out their plans, according to a report made to the sheriff's office today.

W. Kawamoto, a leader among the Japanese was the intended victim.

Ten women and six men made up the crowd that dragged him from his home and planned to emphasize their orders for him to leave the community with a coat of tar and feathers.

The attack on Kawamoto climaxed a series of efforts of white residents in the Belvedere district to force a few Japanese who live there to leave the town. Signs of warning the Orientals to quit the section, have been posted at various points.

Kawamoto, his wife, and Y. Inato, a business associate, have resided in their present home for two years. Reporting the affair, the Japanese said he answered a knock at his door late last night and was surprised to see the delegation of white people outside.

When he attempted to remonstrate with the crowd he was seized and dragged from the house. Men in the party attempted to throw him into an automobile but he slipped loose and ran back into the house, barricading the doorway.

While the crowd was attempting to break in the door, the sheriff's car arrived with a squad of deputies and the raiding party sped away.

Melon's

The treasury opposed Kenyon because the latter on more than one occasion in the senate fought the large business and financial interests of the east when they appeared before Congress.

For instance, the Sioux City Tribune points out editorially that the opposition of Secretary Mellon to Kenyon dates back to the days when the Iowa senator fought the imposition of any duty on aluminum on the ground that rust-controlled products should not be given special privileges. Mr. Mellon's large holdings in the aluminum trust would have suffered by putting aluminum on the free list. At the same time, of course, Mr. Mellon had a right as a private citizen to fight for a protective tariff on his own products.

But what sticks in the craw of the people here is that just a week before the Cleveland convention, the secretary of treasury sent to the senate a list including the name of Judge Kenyon as among those who had practiced before government departments since leaving the senate. It so happens that Kenyon, resigned from the senate only one day, and became a United States circuit court judge on the next day. The treasury department admitted its error, blaming it on something in the directory of lawyers. Judge Kenyon's letter to Senator Brookhart on the subject which has been put into the official record is rather caustic about the "mistake."

"I understand the charge was made by the secretary of the treasury on the strength of a firm name, 'Kenyon, Kelleher and Mitchell,' being found in some law directory. There never was such a law firm. I had no knowledge of such name ever appearing in any law directory.

"It would seem to me that before making such charges against a United States senator or a federal judge that a secretary of the treasury would have had some better evidence. On account of the restriction properly imposed on a judicial officer, I can not characterize this conduct in the language it deserves. I should be glad to believe it was merely a mistake."

When Kenyon was in the senate he made a farewell speech denouncing those who had voted for Senator Newberry, of Michigan, whose seat was contested because of charges of corrupt use of funds in the election. Many of the senators then exposed him since he had been defeated for office. Some of them were delegates to the Cleveland convention and blocked any consideration in their delegations of the name of the Iowa senator.

All this has provoked Iowa newspapers to ask whether the Republican convention was determined to ignore the west, or whether it really knows that the men who were hipped at Cleveland, men like Senator Brookhart, of Iowa; Senator Norris, of Nebraska; and Senator La Follette, of Wisconsin, have been nominated by large majorities in regular Republican primaries and that they control the destinies of the Republican parties in their states.

One of the leading newspapers in central Iowa, the Des Moines Register, carries an editorial denouncing Secretary Mellon's part in blocking the Kenyon nomination, saying:

"It will make all the difference in the world whether it is to be President Coolidge as director general or President Coolidge as director and director by Secretary Mellon."

There is a good deal of sympathy in the west for President Coolidge in his effort to select a progressive for vice president but a growing anxiety about the influences that surround him, and already in this region there are indications that Secretary Mellon himself may be talked about as a good deal on the stump in the autumn campaign as an exemplification of the conservative interests which have the upper hand in the councils of the Republican party. Iowa looks upon the Kenyon episode as a test between progressivism and old-fashioned conservatism, and judging from its present temper will not soon forget how her favorite son was punished for his leadership in the farm bloc, his fight against Newberry and tariff privileges.

Half Gallon Best Mouth Wash—60 Cents

Make It Yourself—As An Antiseptic.
Much More Powerful Than the Weak, Flavored and Foaming Kind.

Have you ever heard of Kojene, the most powerful, non-poisonous, non-alcoholic antiseptic known?

For killing disease germs it is more than seventy-five times as powerful as the ordinary mouthwashes for which you have long been paying high prices.

A six-ounce bottle of Kojene, which is sold for 60 cents at Fisher & Streich's pharmacy and other progressive drug stores, will make half a gallon of a fine tasting, yet unflavored mouth wash—it leaves no artificial, sticky aftertaste—just a feeling of absolute cleanliness.

You don't need to make it all at one time. A half teaspoonful of Kojene added to water will make a half tumblerful. If you try it, once you'll care a lot of money. So make use of it before getting into the habit of using a mouth wash.

Money back—gladly—if you don't say Kojene is the most wonderful antiseptic in the world.—Advertisement.

Chuck's Team Stepping Along

The Bristol team of the Appalachian league, under the leadership of "Chuck" McDaniels, Portsmouth boy, has seemingly at last struck their stride and is winning with considerable regularity. The aggregation after floundering down around the cellar position all spring, recently started a winning streak which has carried the club to fourth place. Just a step behind Knoxville.

"Chuck" is backstepping in old time form and is setting a good example at bat for his fledglings by cracking out numerous hits. He slugged out two safe blows which were prominent factors in his team coping an exciting eleven inning combat over Greenville.

Ladder Slips; Woman Injured

Mrs. Linnie King, wife of J. A. King of 1047 Twenty-Second street, was rendered unconscious Thursday when a ladder fell with her while she was picking cherries in the yard of her uncle, James Wood, Dewey avenue. She had the ladder against a branch of the tree and it slipped. In the fall the ladder struck Mrs. King on the head and she was in a dazed condition for some minutes. A bump on the head was the extent of the injury.

Beaver Trims Rarden

Beaver came from behind and defeated the Rarden Otway combination at Rarden last Sunday by bunching hits off Rending in the sixth and eighth rounds. The home guards chased Vanfossen from the hill by a rally in the fifth and Pfleger finished it out in style. McDermott plays at Beaver June 23. The score:

Woman Hurt Trying to Get on Street Car

Mrs. Martha Wells, cook at the Washington Hotel, who resides at 1804 Jackson street, sustained an injured ankle about 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in a fall resulting when she attempted to board a moving street car at Second and Market streets. Bourdett attended her before she went to the home of a daughter on Eleventh street.

BIG RACE SATURDAY

LATONIA, Ky., June 20.—Featuring the thoroughbred racing program at Latonia next Saturday is the Harold Stakes, inaugurated in 1883, when General Harding, the winner, ran the five furlongs in 1:08 1/4 for a purse of $1,510. Last year, Wisco Counselor won the event in 50 seconds and rewarded his owner to the extent of $7,940.

The 1924 eligibles include Superfrank, Pas Seul, Bollivar Bond, Louis Rubenstein, Modesta, Steppalong, Kubal, Khan, Betelgeuse, Butti In, King Nadi, Barrage, George Demar and Reputation.

While the race is regarded as one of the most important two-year-old features, it really serves as a final preliminary to the Cincinnati trophy, with $5,000 added, run a week later as a secondary feature to the Latonia Derby. The winner of the trophy usually is conceded to be the champion Western two-year-olds.

Move to the City

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Appel, who for many years resided in Lucasville, have moved into the home they recently purchased on Kinney's lane. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rockwell, of Lucasville, have purchased the Appel home in Lucasville.

Road Repaired

Repairs have been made to the West Side road, which "buckled" below the Infirmary, the result of the intense heat.

McDermott vs. Beaver

The McDermott nine will journey to Beaver Sunday for a diamond engagement with the crack village aggregation and a torrid tilt is anticipated. The Beaver athletes slipped the McDermott crew a surprise setback a couple of weeks ago and Manager Elliott and his pals will invade the Pike County town chuck full of fight and a desire to get revenge.

Bullenage, Brannan or "Babe" Thompson will be assigned the task of holding the fence-busting Beaver gang in check and Van Fossen will serve up his southpaw benders for the home club.

SECRET OF KEEPING YOUNG
Why is it that some women look older at thirty-five than others do at fifty? Why is it that so many women are always run-down, weak, pale, nervous, irritable and unhappy? Health, vitality and freedom from pain and disease alone can prevent the signs of age from fastening themselves upon women. All over this country women are awakening to the fact that the ill, aches and pains of women may be relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the result is renewed life, energy and the glow of health. In fact, the secret of keeping young is to ward off all internal ailments that cause premature old age, which is easily accomplished by this remarkable root and herb remedy.—Advertisement.

Greer Exonerated Of Charge In Shooting Of Courtland Dines

LOS ANGELES, Calif., June 20.—(By the A. P.)—Horace A. Greer, former chauffeur for Mabel Normand, the screen actress, was acquitted late today in superior court on a charge of assault with intent to murder Courtland S. Dines, Denver oil operator, only to be immediately rearrested for an alleged violation of the Wright act, the state prohibition law.

against Greer two months ago when police claimed they found whiskey during a raid on his room. Greer protested the charge, saying that the liquor belonged to a man with whom he roomed.

DENVER, Colo., June 19.—Courtland S. Dines, informed that Horace Greer, was acquitted in Los Angeles today on charges of assault with a deadly weapon on Dines, said: "I have no statement to make, but I'm darned glad that it is all over."

HIGH PRICES WILL KILL LIQUOR TRADE, U. S. OFFICIAL SAYS

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Though a flood of liquor is pouring into the country from 60 "bootleg ships" lying off the Atlantic coast, rum defense measures now being planned will eventually "run the price of liquor so high that few can buy it," Mrs. Mable Willebrandt, assistant attorney-general today told the senate Daugherty committee.

The co-ordination of the coast guard and the customs service will make rum-running so hazardous that liquor will become so scarce that necessarily high prices will kill off the trade, she predicted.

that seizures are made within "an hour's sailing" off shore of the seized vessels, she said.

ASHLAND, O., June 18.—Worried because ill health had forced him to delay planting his crops, Elmer Hault, 60, farmer living near West Salem, committed suicide by slashing his throat and wrists.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—We are planning a trip to Atlantic City, going by the route which was printed recently in the paper, and would like for you to inform us in what cities we would find camp sites, and whether there would be any in or near New York.

THANK YOU.
You will find camp sites all along the route between here and New York City. In many places there are public camp sites while in others tourists are invited to camp on the private grounds of farmers living along the highways.

Dear Dolly—I am a woman in great distress. Dolly, I never loved the man I married, and I ran off with another man whom I did love. Now Dolly, this man left his wife and six children and left my man and four children for him, and now he wants to go back home and he wants me to go back to my happy home. He has been untrue to me, and Dolly, don't you think he should have been true to me, or do you think I should go back to my old man and the kids, and Dolly, I will appreciate your advice and please it out. Now another question. Do you think I would make a good photographer, and do you think I could learn the course well enough to make a living? I am 23 years of age and have had lots of trouble in my young life. Dolly, I am writing you on a typing machine and I have never written on one before. I think I would make a good writer of I had a couple of good lessons. Dolly, I will be waiting for your answer.

GALLOPING SAIL

I would advise you to try and make a happy home for your husband and children instead of trying to learn shorthand and type-writing. You need a good spanking worse than you do advice.

Dear Miss Wise—I want to know your opinion on bobbed hair. I hear it will not be worn next year but I am almost decided to have my hair cut after this long time. I have so much headache and I have an unusual heavy head of hair and its very long. In fact, its my only redeeming feature. I have never even thought once before I'd ever have my hair cut but its so hot these days and hard to care for. Do you think my hair looks well. I am married and have a small face. Do you suppose I'd regret it if I had it cut? What style looks best for fine hair. I have noticed coarse hair looks best cut. My husband leaves it to me, as I am a sensible woman. I don't know if it would look well or not for me. Your judgment will be appreciated.

GOOD MANNERS Father or Husband

A lady never calls on another under the sponsorship of a man unless it is her husband or father. A young girl very properly can go with her fiance to return visits paid by members or friends of his family, but she should not pay an initial visit, except in rare cases.

The Manly Woman's Home Missionary Society met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. K. Parker, 1820 Eleventh street.

After the regular business was transacted the program for the afternoon included readings by Mrs. Fred Ross and Mrs. Herbert Boring. The annual election of officers resulted in the re-election of all the old officers as follows:
President—Mrs. William Blerley.
Vice-President—Mrs. George Jordan.
Secretary—Mrs. Albert Lechner.
Treasurer—Mrs. Aaron Clark.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Ben Stewart.

Secretaries for the different branches were also appointed.
Mrs. Howard Sellards, district president, was a guest at the meeting and presided at the installation services.

Crist Is Dismissed

Charles Crist, 51, charged with assault upon Mrs. Minnie Conley, 228 Ninth street, was dismissed by Judge Sprague following a hearing in Municipal court Thursday for lack of convincing evidence.

The alleged assault occurred in Mrs. Conley's home early on the morning of June 12 when she claimed Crist came there while she was still in bed and attempted to molest her. She further stated that Crist had called at her home three times the day before on the pretense of arranging to take his noon-day meal there.

The accused denied her statements and declared that Mrs. Conley had made a date to meet him the night before and failed to keep the appointment.

He said he called again to ascertain her reason for failing to keep the date and that she gave the excuse that her husband was at home preventing her from leaving. The defendant was represented by Attorney E. G. Miller.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Justice Wagner in supreme court today filed an interlocutory decree of divorce in favor of Jack Clifford, against Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, his former dancing partner. The decree becomes final in 90 days.

Child Scalded To

Death In Wash Boiler

CINCINNATI, O., June 20.—Alena Conch, three years old, died tonight of burns received when she fell in a washboiler of hot water.

According to the child's parents she was playing on the floor and in some manner managed to climb into the boiler of water. Her father, who was in the next room heard her screams, but was unable to get her out before she was fatally scalded.

TANLAC KEEPS TAYLOR IN BEST OF HEALTH

Prominent Citizen Of Buffalo Tells How Medicine Helped Him Overcome Troubles.

What Tanlac has contributed to my health and happiness can't be measured either in dollars and cents or words. It is the high tribute paid the famous treatment by George P. Taylor, 321 Plymouth Ave., Buffalo, N. Y., a life-long friend and for many years an employee of this city. Mr. Taylor is a member of Richardson Post G. A. R. of Buffalo, and numbers his friends by his acquaintance.

"I am now 77 years old," says Mr. Taylor, "but in spite of my advanced age this grand Tanlac has made me feel as fit as a fiddle, and I am glad to be surrounded with the people who are praising it. It has not only rid me of a combination of ailments that resulted from indigestion, but it has driven pains out of my hip that had me going around on a cane. So Tanlac brought me the unexpected good health, and consequently I am one of the happiest men in Buffalo."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

High lights and Sidelights As Demmy Convention Assembles

(By United Press)
NEW YORK, June 20.—(By the United Press)—Said W. G. McAdoo to the press:

"The Volstead law can be and will be enforced if I am elected."

Said Governor Smith, when the statement was called to his attention:

"The Volstead law ought to be enforced. It's the law of the land."

Governor Smith started his pre-convention breakfast with beef hash, toast and coffee. "Democratic enough for any one," he said.

George Brennan is a real old-time boss without any frills. And he demonstrated his Democracy today when he answered a telephone call. A reporter on the other end of the line, evidently thinking that a president-maker would have a flock of servants about him, asked if he was speaking to Mr. Brennan's private secretary.

"Private secretary! Exploded Brennan. "Mr. Brennan hasn't got such an animal."

A combination of warm weather and a somewhat better political situation caused Governor Smith to pull away and drive to Coney Island for a swim.

Each delegate arriving in town today was met by a pretty girl with a smile and a bouquet of flowers. Men delegates received bouquets, while the ladies were given corsages.

Forty-two out of the first sixty men thus decorated, replied: "I suppose the flowers were given in the Madison Square Garden we have heard so much about."

NEW YORK, June 20.—(By Associated Press)—Out of town leaders at the convention expect to spend considerable time here after it opens next Tuesday. Many say they look for a new record in ballots before a candidate for president is nominated.

The present record of 46 ballots was set at Baltimore in 1912 when Woodrow Wilson broke a deadlock and won the nomination. The next highest was at San Francisco when James M. Cox was selected as standard bearer on the 44th ballot.

A lady bearing a wet plank has arrived in the person of Miss Helen L. Baughman, of Washington, D. C., with the avowed intention of laying it before the platform committee of the Democratic national convention. The plank calls for the modification of the Volstead act to allow light wines and beer.

The entertainment program opens today with a pre-convention luncheon to arriving delegates. Cordell Hull, chairman of the national committee, Homer S. Cummings, Senator Pat Harrison and Joseph Day will speak. Don C. Seitz, of the New York World, will act as toastmaster.

In the hotel McAlpin, headquarters were opened today for a favorite son candidate concerning whom comparatively little has been said in New York up to the present. The candidate is Governor Jonathan M. Davis, of Kansas. The headquarters is unpretentious but there is a constant stream of callers and a steady distribution of literature, photographs and information about the governor.

The house committee of the hotel men's association gives out the following information in somewhat disappointed terms:

"Talk of 300,000 and 250,000 persons coming to New York is nonsense. We found out how many people usually go to Democratic conventions by consulting railroad records. These show that 10,000 people went to Baltimore, 15,000 to St. Louis and 12,000 to San Francisco. If New York gets twice as many we will be doing very well indeed. We will have many vacant rooms."

McAdoo supporters have adopted the slogan with which they boomed the claims of their candidate at the golden gate—"Mc'll do."

The reborn slogan is on their hat bands.

Senator Ralston, dark horse, is filling his farm, Hoosier home, near Indianapolis, and will remain there during the convention, says his law partner, Frederick Van Noy, who is here working for the senator's nomination.

TO TAKE OFF FAT

New French Formula Reduces Pleasantly, Safely and Surely.

If you are suffering from excess fat, if your heart, lungs and liver are affected by the burden you are carrying, if your joints are stiffened with rheumatism, or if you are a victim of high blood pressure, due to obesity, you can now be relieved. No matter how little or how much you want to lose, and no matter all the pills, creams, diets and exercises you have tried before, SAN-GRINA, a new discovery of a French scientist, is guaranteed to relieve any fat man or woman or your money is refunded.

SAN-GRINA is the formula of a French physician. It has been used in Europe by millions of men and women, because it is simple, easy, pleasant and harmless. If you are burdened with rolls of ugly fat, make this test today. First, weigh yourself, then go to any good drug store and get a box of SAN-GRINA, take two small tablets before each meal, and watch your fat disappear. One French woman, now in America, states that she reduced 50 pounds in eight weeks with this marvelous discovery, and has never regained one pound since. You do not have to follow any diets or exercises, but be sure and get the right tablet, called SAN-GRINA, as nothing like it has ever before been offered to the American public.

San-grina is now sold at Fisher & Streich's, Stewart's and Stabler's Drug Stores.

Banker Harris Gets Marriage Annulled

NEW YORK, June 20.—Justice Wegman in supreme court today granted an annulment of the marriage of Beverly D. Harris, former vice president of the National City bank, to Eleanor Elaine Lee, of Memphis, Tenn.

The annulment came as a result of the recent trial in which the banker alleged his wife has misrepresented her former status and social relations.

Move To Indict Group Of Mail Train Bandits

CHICAGO, June 20.—Federal agents prepared today to go before the grand jury immediately with evidence in connection with the holdup a week ago of a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul mail train near Chicago by bandits who obtained more than $2,000,000 in cash and securities.

It was asserted by postal inspectors that confessions have been obtained from three of four men charged with actual participation in the train robbery. These four are Willie, Willis and Johnny Newton, brothers and Carlo Fontaine.

Four others are being sought, including Max Greenberg, St. Louis gangster, who the authorities claim planned the robbery.

It was reported today that indictments will be sought against ten persons two others besides those alleged to have actually participated in the holdup being involved as accessories.

Jewelry valued at about $10,000 said to have been part of the robbery loot, was recovered from Willis Newton, postal inspectors revealed today. It was also reported that additional jewelry has been found in the rifled mail pouches, which the bandits discarded near Joliet, Ill.

Stock Broker Missing, Funds Gone, Charge

COLUMBUS, June 20.—Receivership for the William W. V. Wynn, Columbus stock brokers, was appointed today in common pleas court, upon application of Harry W. Hentz, and Charles W. Tillington, former employees, alleging misappropriation of funds entrusted to his use.

Upon investigation by Edward P. Hogan, receiver, it was discovered, he claims, that $30,000 was missing from the holdings of the company. Vind Wynne, is said to have left Columbus, June 3 without indicating where he was going.

The report to Mr. Hogan, reveals, it was said, that $10,000 had been misappropriated from funds borrowed from employees. In addition, $10,000 entrusted to Vind Wynne by a Cleveland woman.

"WE'RE HERE TO HELP YOU SAVE"

BOOSTERS HEARTILY WELCOMED ON THEIR GET-BETTER-ACQUAINTED TOUR

"With citizens in this fertile valley working elbow to elbow and showing a spirit of co-operation and good will toward each other, and with the natural resources that abound in this community," said C. E. Dowling in his speech on the Booster Invasion of Lucasville, Wakefield and Waverly yesterday, "nothing can prevent a continuous line of smokestacks reaching from Chillicothe, on the North to the Seloto river to the Ohio, and following the Ohio as far as Huntington and even beyond that city. Within another quarter of a century Portsmouth is certain of being one of the largest industrial centers in the country."

In the towns visited yesterday, Mr. Dowling emphasized the fact that the Boosters were not out in a trade seeking tour, but to encourage the citizens of each of the towns to buy at North as much as possible, and whenever possible. He pointed out that if goods could not be bought in the local stores the best thing to do was to eliminate the mail order house, when the necessary purchase could be made much more quickly and with less cost by coming to Portsmouth.

The trip was full of enthusiasm, it being delayed by the Boosters and by the towns visited and the next trip will be anticipated with still greater interest. The committee who had charge of the trip yesterday say they have something up their sleeves for the next one.

It was after 1 o'clock when the committee, Pearl Newland, chairman; Clarence Scheffler, Kenneth Markham, William Atlas and St. Straus gave the word for the motor caravan including nearly thirty-five automobiles decked out in banners and streamers bearing the slogan, "Portsmouth is a Good Town. Come and See Us," to start the trip. Nearly 200 Boosters, wearing white duck hats and booster badges made the trip.

Dowling who made a rattling good, peppy talk. From Lucasville the caravan moved on to Wakefield, where a stop was made long enough for the band to play several selections. A good sized crowd enjoyed the program.

A fine surprise was on hand when the thirty boosters drove into Pike-ton. Senator and Mrs. C. K. Patterson's fine old home is on the main thoroughfare of the village, and the boosters were delighted to see a number of chairs awaiting them under one of the big trees there. And on a table was a huge old fashioned curlew pie, which, it was soon disclosed, contained ice-cold lemonade. It required no pressing invitation for all to gather around that spot and everyone had all the lemonade they could drink. Then came sweet, little Virginia Moore Patterson, with a great dish of roses, which were passed out to the Boosters. More than that, from the hospitable Patterson home came plates of delicious cookies, so it is no wonder that Mr. Dowling in his speech later said he had been urged to announce that the Boosters were going to stop "coming and going" in Pike-ton.

The same spirit marked the greetings from others at Pike-ton, and the band played just a little louder, and a little better as a result. Miss Stone, in an extra burst of her songs, and when Mr. Dowling cut loose with his well known oratorical ability there was no room for doubt left in the minds of Pike-ton residents that Portsmouth wanted to be on the best possible terms with them all.

Leaving Pike-ton at 3:40 the cry was on "On to Waverly!"

When that thriving place was reached the Boosters found Mayor Charles Gableman, a brother of Ex-Mayor W. N. Gableman, of this city, waiting with a big crowd of Waverly residents. Mayor Gableman welcomed the boosters to Waverly in a most cordial talk. "It gives me great pleasure to be able to welcome you Portsmouth Boosters," said Mayor Gableman. "We feel honored to have you among us today, and we feel honored to know that we have your friendship. We are watching with pride the progress of your best interests are identical with ours. We take your visit to us as a herald of progress. We are all interested in a well paved roadway from Columbus to the Ohio river, and Portsmouth has set a splendid example by paving to the county line. We are interested in Portsmouth again because some of our former citizens have found homes there and are helping to make the city one of the progressive spots of the valley. No city in the United States has a better reputation, or a more deserved one for wide hospitality than Portsmouth. We enjoy going there, to our neighbor city of Portsmouth and we are always glad of an opportunity to show our appreciation of the spirit that dwells here in Waverly. You will find many Portsmouth made articles on the shelves of our stores, and I am glad to say that the fact such articles are made in Portsmouth means they are all right. In closing I want again to assure you that you are indeed welcome in Waverly."

St. J. Graham, manager of the Portsmouth Gas Company, had charge of the details in Waverly, and introduced the speakers, and Miss Stone, in introducing Mr. Dowling he said "A great educator, speaking in Portsmouth recently, said 'education will not solve our problems. It is the elbow-to-elbow association of our business and other leaders that will solve these problems.' It is with this idea we are among you today to discuss our mutual problems."

Mr. Dowling made one of the best talks of the afternoon at Waverly and was sincerely applauded.

The meeting at Waverly brought the first booster trip to a successful close.

Success of Business Depends On Service, Mr. Dowling Says

A symposium of Mr. C. E. Dowling's talks at Lucasville, Wakefield and Waverly, is as follows:

"Business without a soul is a thing of the past. In the present day there can be no business without service. The dinner clubs of this era are founded upon that plan, and that is why they are meeting with such success. The Boosters of Portsmouth come today with the idea that they hope to be of service to the entire community. I do not think I am exaggerating when I predict that within 25 years we may see one continuous place stretching from Chillicothe to Portsmouth and on to Huntington. At various places along the way will be huge industrial plants and this community will indeed be the workshop of the nation, with the goods produced here radiating to all parts of the world. This booster trip is staged in the hope we may secure your enthusiastic co-operation in making this prediction a success. We want to urge you to climb into the band wagon and help push this valley forward to where it should be. I do not hesitate in asking this co-operation to say to you 'Buy at Home,' to keep your money at home. The money that you spend in Portsmouth should be the natural overflow that comes with healthy trade relations between closely related communities. 'We sincerely desire you to feel that you have a part in the prosperity of this valley. As one community grows in prosperity so grows another in close proximity, if the citizens are awake to their opportunities. Let us try to have a unified vision and co-operate in building up prosperity for the future.'"

Smith Says He Wouldn't Have Vice Presidential Nomination

NEW YORK, June 20.—Governor Smith declared today he would not accept the Democratic vice presidential nomination. Told by newspaper men that there had been some talk of his nomination for the lesser candidacy, the governor said: "I will not be a second choice. I don't even acknowledge the existence of a second choice."

Pat Harrison Takes Practice Gallop with "Dark Horses"

BY FRAZIER EDWARDS
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, June 20.—Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi today took a practice gallop with the Democratic "dark horses" being groomed as compromise candidates in event of a deadlock between William G. McAdoo and Gov. Al Smith.

Harrison appeared after a conference between George E. Brennan, Democratic boss of Ill., and leader of the anti-McAdoo forces and Governor Smith. Democratic leaders and delegates everywhere have only kind words for the Mississippians, whose popularity with all factions of the party was responsible for his selection as the Democratic "keynote." The only point raised against the availability of Harrison in the event of a deadlock was his far Southern residence. His ability and all around fitness were conceded generally.

He is a dry of protestant faith, an orator of great ability and is well known to the voters. He will virtually write his own platform in his "key-note" speech.

Harrison sprang into national prominence at the San Francisco convention in 1920 when he was floor leader for James M. Cox. His personal popularity with all factions was in a large measure responsible for rounding up delegates, to nominate Cox.

With McAdoo and Smith in a hopeless deadlock, the Harrison boomers believe that a combination of the Smith-Cox-Underwood force and a large draft on the "favorite sons" vote could put the Mississippiian over.

It also was pointed out that Harrison has carefully refrained from espousing the candidacy of any of the of the leaders in the race.

'Popular Propaganda' May Start Move Against Two-Thirds Rule

(BY FRASIER EDWARDS)
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, June 20.—(By the United Press)—The move—if one develops—to smother the two-thirds rule in the Democratic National Convention here next week, may start through "popular propaganda." Those who look for a McAdoo move in this direction, because with the rule abrogated, McAdoo could more easily command the necessary majority—550 votes—that would give him the nomination, forecast this:

At the appointed time before the balloting begins, McAdoo leaders in virtually every state, will begin deluging delegates with telegraphic demands for the abrogation of the rule.

Leaders in the American Legion are said to be at the head of the movement to change the rule. But the "popular propaganda" will come from rank and file Democrats as well.

Unbiased observers concede that McAdoo will have in excess of 400 votes on the first ballot. With nearly 800 delegates uncommitted, the McAdoo managers believe their candidate can pick off more than enough to give him a majority in the early balloting.

Governor Al Smith, of New York, with approximately 300 votes and the control of about 100 more in the hands of Anti-McAdoo forces holds the veto power so long as the two-thirds rule remains in effect.

PESKY BED-BUGS

Pesky Devils (Bedbugs) P. D. Q. is the chemical that puts the overbearing bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants, etc.—impossible for the pest to exist where P. D. Q. is used. It is a guarantee to the public that the safest, quickest and most economical way of ridding the pest is by the use of P. D. Q., as this kills the eggs as well as the adults, and will not injure the clothing.

The package makes a full quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches or cockroaches—and also contains great spray to get the eggs nests and to get at places and saves the trouble of washing and scrubbing. Double strength, liquid.

Howard Faces Murder Charge

William Howard, who was bound over to the grand jury Tuesday on a charge of shooting with intent to kill Clark Copps, will be required to answer to the more serious charge of first degree murder. It was stated Friday when Chief Home Arthur filed an affidavit in Municipal court charging the gun user with capital offense.

Copps, who was shot three times by Howard when still in bed at the home of his parents on Ninth street, Earlytown, early Monday morning, later succumbed to his wounds in Hampstead hospital.

The prisoner will probably be brought before Judge Sprague in Municipal court Saturday morning to enter a plea to the murder charge. Attorney B. F. Kimble has been retained to defend the accused.

Players Fined; Suspended

CHICAGO, June 20.—Fighting and boisterous conduct will not be tolerated in the playing of an American League game, President Ban Johnson declared today in announcing that the players involved in the riotous Detroit-New York game at Detroit last Friday had been fined as well as suspended. Bob Menzel, of the Yankees, who, President Johnson says, was responsible for the outbreak, was suspended for 10 days and fined $100, while Pitcher Bert Cole of the Tigers was suspended for ten days and fined $50.

Babe Ruth, while escaping suspension, was hit in the pocketbook for $50.

THANX, CALL AGAIN

It looked for awhile this morning as though the Times editorial force were holding a "Donation Day." First arrived a big, cold, juicy watermelon from the Stockham Company, and the perspiring reporters licked their lips in anticipation of a cool "feed."

This was followed soon after by a box of luscious black-heart cherries sent by Alva E. Krouk, proprietor of the Spring Brook Farm at Minford. The fruit is very large and unusually perfect, and the staff fell upon the box with gusto.

Driver Fined, Sent To Jail

Kenneth Carter, 19, driver for Brady Bros., grocers, pleaded not guilty to reckless driving when he appeared in municipal court Thursday, but the evidence was against him and he was adjudged guilty. Judge Sprague imposed a fine of $5 and costs and sentenced Carter to jail for one day which was increased to three days when the court was advised that the truck operated by Carter would run faster than he represented. The accused declared the truck was out of repair and would not make over 15 miles but a test showed that the machine could be speeded up to 22 miles.

Trail Open Between Chillicothe and Circleville Lay First Brick On Hurth Hotel

With the laying of the first brick on the Hurth Hotel yesterday, the work on the superstructure began in earnest when the workmen began the construction of the brick wall on the Third street side of the building. The building is being built of concrete, steel and brick, with the foundation of concrete, the framework of steel, and with metal joists and other equipment. Face brick and hollow tile complete the construction materials. The weight of the building will be carried by the big steel columns and girders.

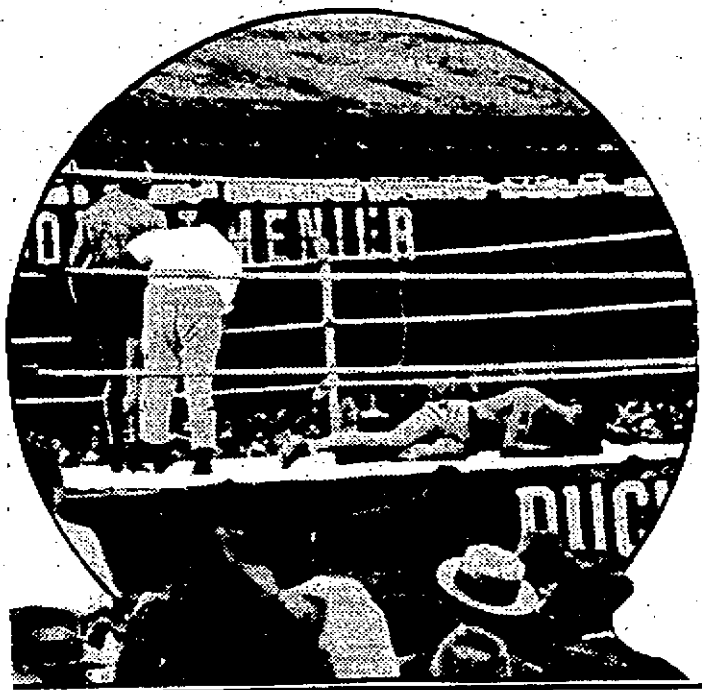

Word was received yesterday, Adolph J. Hurth Jr., head of the Hurth Hotel Co., stated last night, that the derelict which will be used to place the big steel beams in place, was shipped from Pittsburgh yesterday, and it is expected that this will be in place and ready to begin work Monday.

Verdict For Defense

A verdict for the defendant was brought in by a Common Pleas court jury Thursday in the case of Kenneth Hauer, against Home Vulcanizing company heard before Judge Thomas and jury.

Hauer, doing business as The Howard System, Cincinnati, sued to recover the sum of $250 claimed as a balance due on a contract for erecting and maintaining 15 signs on roads leading into Portsmouth, advertising the defendant's business. Defendant claimed a breach of contract, asserting that Hauer failed to maintain the signs as he was required to do under the agreement, contending that some of the signs were torn down and others became weather-beaten and unrecognizable. The jury upheld their contention after hearing the evidence. Attorneys McLaughlin and Staker for plaintiff, and Attorney J. T. Micklethwait appeared for defendant.

Inner Walls of Pebbled Cork

Through the Cork-Wall Window You "See the Cork that Saves the Ice"

For years the beautiful Alaska has been known as a great ice-saver. Just as some heating plants get more heat out of the fuel, so the Alaska gets more cold out of the ice.

Several things contribute to this ice economy. Clean, tight-fitting doors and joints—seven-ply wall construction—full ice-sweep—dry air circulation—a patented air-tight drain—all these aid. But the chief reason is, inner walls of pebbled cork.

The Insulator Supreme

C.O.R.K.—that is the secret. Cork, in pebbled form, built into a thick inner lining, filled with confined air pockets, the whole making up the center of the seven-ply Alaska Walls.

Inside this protecting construction, as in a deep cave, the ice does its work. In these cool food chambers the refrigerating process of circulating air, constantly cooled, goes on, protected from the outside by the walls of Pebbled Cork. Here food is protected and ice conserved.

A Months Supply of Ice Free!

By special arrangement with the Stockham Co. we are able to make the above offer. When you buy your "Alaska" whether for cash or easy payments, The Stockham Co., is immediately notified to fill your refrigerator with ice and they will also deliver to you an ice book calling for 666 lbs. of ice. This offer is for a limited time only.

Woodrow Wilson's Last Political Will and Testament To Be Placed Before Convention

BALTIMORE, Md., June 20.—A copyright dispatch from a staff correspondent at New York to the Baltimore Sun today says that "Woodrow Wilson's last political will and testament," a document of party principle and policy, is to be laid by a group of his followers before the members of the resolutions committee when the time comes to write the Democratic platform.

The "memorandum" as it is called, takes this position on foreign relationships: "Straight out and straight forward membership of the United States in the League of Nations and an abandonment of 'farceful' policy of 'unofficial observation'."

"Adherence of this nation to the permanent international court of justice under the auspices of the League and with no qualifying reservations."

"On domestic matters the former president and his political associates agreed upon these policies: "A liberal attitude toward prohibition, but with law enforcement whatever the law may be."

"Revision downward of federal taxation as radically and as rapidly as the state of the treasury will permit."

"A careful and scientific revision downward of the tariff to promote foreign trade and to prevent the exploitation of the many for the aggrandizement of the few."

"Relief for the farmer by granting to him an additional credit when needed."

"Re-examination of the whole transportation problem by congress looking toward lower rates and with the possible creation of a new department of transportation, having representation in the cabinet."

"A declaration for religious freedom, the separation of church and state and the condemnation of any sect or order which would openly or covertly impair any religious right."

The document, the correspondent says, was drafted by Mr. Wilson a few months before his death, in collaboration with eight or nine of his closest friends.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, mentioned as one of those who conferred with Woodrow Wilson in framing a memorandum

Cherries, Nope, Jess Likker; Woman Fined

Mrs. Leona Johnson, 54, drew a fine of $100 and costs when she appeared in Municipal court Friday and pleaded guilty under a charge of possession of liquor unlawfully.

Mrs. Johnson was taken into custody late yesterday afternoon, when Patrolman Charles Bard, acting on a tip that a woman was in the habit of touting whiskey over the Ohio river, stationed himself at the lower ferry and presently Mrs. Johnson arrived on the ferry. She carried a handbag which apparently contained cherries, but when the officer stopped her and searched the bag found that it contained, besides little red cherries, a glass jar partly filled with moonshine liquor.

Thief Steals Auto Tools

A thief broke into the barn in the rear of T. H. Vaughters' store at Rushdown and made off with automobile tools. He attempted to remove tires from Mr. Vaughters' machine, but evidently became frightened and made his getaway before this could be accomplished.

Rev. Phelps to Preach On Theme "Life's Longest Day"

The morning sermon at the Second Presbyterian church, Sunday entitled "Christian Education—Reflection," by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Phelps, is in keeping with World's Sunday School Day. The biggest work which the Church of Jesus Christ does is to perpetuate itself by the Christian training of its youth and to enlarge itself by reaching forth the loving arms of Jesus to the children throughout the world.

The evening sermon, "Life's Longest Day" looks for a spiritual significance in the fact that this is the longest day of the year. What is life's longest day? Is it a day of gladness or of sadness, a day of rest or of work, a holiday or a holy day?

The general public is given a most hearty and cordial invitation to attend our services at 10:30 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. and enjoy a worshipful hour with us in God's house.

At the morning services Mrs. Winifred S. Burnett and Mrs. Elmer Biddle will sing "God Is Love" and at the evening services Mrs. C. E. Nodder will sing "Love Not The World."

Masons To Observe St. John's Day

Members of Aurora Lodge No. 48, F. and A. M. will observe St. John's Day, Sunday, by attending morning services at Trinity Church where the pastor, Rev. Walter H. Smith will deliver a special sermon.

All Master Masons are urged to meet at the Temple at 10 o'clock. They will march from there to the church, the services to begin at 10:30. St. John's Day is Tuesday, the 24th.

Bandits Rob Bank

CLEVELAND, June 20.—A young man after noon today, bound to a chair in a private office and made to watch the Atlas Savings and Loan company, while the robbers took $1,000 from the teller's drawer and escaped.

Women In Row; One Fined

Mrs. Anna Leichter, 1112 Clay street, was found to be guilty of disorderly conduct at a hearing in Municipal court Friday, and Judge Sprague imposed a fine of $25 and costs against her, but later suspended the fine pending good behavior. The court also required Mrs. Leichter to give a $200 bond to keep the peace for six months, particularly towards her neighbor, Mrs. Gertrude Ward, 1110 Clay street.

The hearing disclosed that there has been ill feeling between them for some time and the complaint grew out of an altercation which occurred last Saturday when the two women disputed the right-of-way of the other in passing on the street which caused them to figure into a scrap.

After hearing stories the court made a finding that Mrs. Leichter brought on the trouble and was the aggressor, and exonerated Mrs. Ward from all blame.

Soft Drink King Files Suit For Divorce

ATLANTA, Ga., June 20.—(By the United Press.)—Asa G. Candler, aged 73, today filed suit for divorce from his second wife, Mrs. May Little Candler.

The suit, filed in superior court here, charged cruelty and humiliating conduct on the part of the youthful wife of the 73-year-old soft drink king. The wife of the multi-millionaire, and mother of two children by a former marriage admitted frequent auto rides with other men and told him she no longer loved him, Candler charged in his petition.

Perfidious savages

In the Torres Straits Islands in the East Indies, there are no trees suitable for canoe building. So the natives, a cruel, treacherous race import their canoes from the Fly River Delta in New Guinea — another place with an unenviable reputation. The distance between these two places is over four hundred miles, and no native in that region travels even one-quarter of that distance.

The word is simply passed on from tribe to tribe. On the strength of this vague order a canoe is built. Then it is relayed back. Each tribe of bloodthirsty cannibals tests and discusses it before passing it on. Finally the payment, shell necklaces, spear points, arm bands, makes its way to the canoe builders in the same leisurely fashion.

There is reason for this honesty in savages to whom perfidy is natural. If any of the parties in this complicated transaction were to risk being dishonest, their credit would be ruined. And though these natives may kill and eat each other, they hold barter inviolate.

Even savages understand that in commerce it pays to be honest, and to let the world realize your honesty. So in modern business. Advertising must be honest and it is a proof of honesty. A product's advertising is the best guarantee of its quality, usefulness and value.

The man who advertises is inviting your inspection. He is letting his goods stand on their own merit. He can't afford to deceive you. You can depend on him. That's why it pays to read advertising and to buy advertised goods.

D'Oisy Greeted at Calcutta

First pictures to arrive showing Lieutenant D'Oisy, spectacular French airman, being greeted in India by members of the French settlement at Calcutta. D'Oisy, it will be recalled, made the flight to that point in 61 1/2 hours, starting the world.

The couple was married less than a year ago, and just a few weeks before the trial of a $500,000 breach of promise suit against Candler brought by Mrs. Onzian De Bouchel, New Orleans society.

Mrs. Candler had been a public stenographer with officers near those of the cocoa cola king. They were married at Emory University after an elopement. Bishop Warren Candler, brother of Asa Candler, and his young bride separated several months ago after Mrs. Candler was arrested in an apartment here with W. J. Stoddard and J. W. Keeling on charges of "occupying a dive". After a trial in police court, Mrs. Candler was freed and Stoddard, prominent business man, was ordered held to the grand jury on charges of possessing intoxicating liquor.

NEW YORK, June 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Subpoenas were issued today requiring the presence of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and his Secretary Arthur Sixsmith, at the trial of Gaston B. Means and Elmer W. Jarnecke in federal court here next Tuesday.

Bartee Fined

Henry Bartee, 27 years old, North End young man, was adjudged guilty of assault and battery at a hearing in Municipal court Friday and Judge Sprague imposed a fine of $100 and costs and sentenced him to jail for thirty days.

The charge against Bartee grew out of an altercation which occurred at the Reitz lumber yard on the night of May 30, when Theo. Arthur and Raymond Burke were severely beaten by Bartee and several companions, including Herbert Larkin, who was recently found guilty and sent to jail on a similar charge.

TAX OFF JULY 1st
Motion picture exhibitors are looking forward to July 1st with perhaps more eagerness than the little boys are anticipating July 4th. For at midnight July 2, the tax on motion picture show admission tickets will be abolished on all tickets of fifty cents or under. The amusement tax on the higher priced tickets will still be enforced but that will not affect the motion picture houses to any great extent as most of their prices are fifty cents or under.

MASONIC DEDICATION IMPRESSIVE EVENT

Western Sun Lodge No. 91 E. took the place of Attorney Fred and A. M. of Wheelersburg are now comfortable located in their fourth Temple, a new three story fireproof structure that replaces the third Temple destroyed by fire in May 1922, the dedication of the new structure taking place Thursday afternoon and evening with appropriate exercises.

At the session marking the dedication of the Temple in the afternoon, Judge E. E. Corn of Ironton presided.

Following a buffet lunch served by Western Sun Lodge a public meeting was held in the Lodge room at 7 o'clock. Attorneys Ross of Ironton delivered a short address at this meeting.

Mr. Ross, an able orator, dealt with the influences of Free Masonry on the lives of men, and on the life of a community, and extended greetings of Lawrence Lodge, Ironton, to the Western Sun Lodge upon the occasion of the dedication of its new home.

The choice of a member of the Ironton Lodge to deliver the address of the evening was a most happy one, since Lawrence Lodge of Ironton was instituted by the Grand Lodge upon the recommendation of Western Sun Lodge. Lawrence Lodge was first instituted at Hanging Rock and later moved to Ironton.

Aurora Lodge No. 48 of Portsmouth is the parent lodge of the trio, recommendations for the institution of the Western Sun Lodge having come from the Portsmouth body.

After the address of the occasion, Journey's Orchestra took over the reins and the scene of festivities was transferred to the ball room, where the strains of dance music reigned supreme until a late hour.

Western Sun Lodge has been presented with a complete set of caskets by J. B. Lee of Wheelersburg, which is a member of York Lodge, Columbus. The caskets were made from a walnut tree that grew on George Washington's plantation at Mt. Vernon.

The original signers of the charter for Western Sun Lodge were: Jesse W. Keister, Worshipful Master; Ezekiel Flanders, Senior Warden; Sam Gould, Junior Warden; Seymour Pizley, J. W. Copin, Wm. Burke, Alexander Clatty, Benjamin Burke.

Heat

(By United Press)
Numerous deaths and prostrations followed in the wake of a terrific heat wave which swept the middle-west during the past 24 hours. Thunder storms early today cooled off some parts of the affected territory.

In Chicago the thermometer leaped thirty degrees within 12 hours, reaching a high of 94. Temperatures exceeded 95 at some points.

Iowa heat records were smashed. Missouri reported temperatures ranging from 92 to 110 degrees.

In Indiana the thermometer reached a high of 105 degrees.

Storms swept Iowa today, interrupting wire communications. The weather bureau forecasts rain and generally settled weather and cooler weather.

In Ohio five deaths occurred in Cleveland and one at East Liverpool. Chicago temperatures made a 30 degree jump in 11 hours to a 94 degree peak yesterday evening. One man dropped dead and another drowned when he sought relief from the heat.

Two persons believed to have been damaged from the 100 degree heat in Iowa hanged themselves.

Indian thermometers registered around 92 and Nashville, Tenn., had 93.

Though Chicago's lake bathing season had not officially opened, thousands sought relief on the beaches yesterday. The water registered 68 degrees. A number spent the night in the parks.

John Moffett, 47, a telephone repairman, dropped dead; William Dales and John Barrett, both 29, drowned at different places, seeking relief from the heat; Paul Szare, 40, and an unidentified man of about the same age were prostrated by the heat and taken to hospitals.

Nineteen heat crazed dogs were killed by police in various parts of Chicago.

As the second day of the heat wave opened, Chicago was faced with a possible ice famine due to a threatened strike of ice wagon drivers. More than 4,000 drivers are likely to walk out at any moment, it was said, as negotiations between ice dealers and the drivers' union were broken off. The drivers demand an increase of approximately 50 cents a day.

The heat wave which sent the mercury to record height for June over the southwest was broken today. Temperatures were gradually dropping and generally ten points lower than yesterday, when 95 was recorded in Kansas City, 102 in Oklahoma City and as high as

"This Freedom" in the Caucasus

Oh yes—women's rights are having an inning in the Caucasus as well as elsewhere. This interesting and exclusive photograph shows a gathering at Uschek where the right to abolish the veil, with which women of that region have been swathed for generations, is the question. Also they are being instructed as to their rights under recent emancipation rulings.

Big Revival in New Boston

Mrs. Franks Forgives
Slayers of Her Son

CHICAGO, June 20.—Forgiveness for Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard J. Loeb, confessed kidnapers-slayers of her son Robert, has been expressed by Mrs. Jacob Franks, says the Chicago Herald and Examiner.

"There is no hatred in my heart for the boys who killed my son," she is quoted as having told a friend. She said she desired to talk to the two youths regarding the last moments of their victim. The boy's father, on the contrary, has expressed the belief the slayers of his son should pay the full penalty of the law.

Both youths have been given intricate physical and psychological tests as a basis for a defense of insanity against the prosecution to obtain convictions on two capital offenses of kidnapping and murder.

Doug and Mary
Cheered by Throng

COPENHAGEN, June 19.—Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford were given a great reception by cheering throngs when they arrived in Copenhagen at 6 o'clock this morning. The crowds were of such proportion that tramway service was disrupted and many young women fainted. The square by the Central railroad station and the adjoining streets were jammed as early as 5 o'clock.

"Our reception in Spain was lukewarm compared with the one Copenhagen has given us, was Doug's remark after he and Mary had arrived safely in their hotel.

Wife of Kansas
Senator Dies

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—(By the United Press)—Mrs. Charles Curtis, wife of the Senator from Kansas, died today.

Mrs. Curtis had been ill for several years, steadily losing ground. For the past few weeks she had been almost unconscious, recognizing Senator Curtis only at rare intervals.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Curtis was Annie E. Baird. They were married at Topeka, Kansas, 40 years ago, when Curtis was just getting started on his career, after a youth of many vicissitudes.

Probably the last time she recognized her husband was the morning when word was brought to Curtis that he had been selected as the administration candidate for the Republican vice presidential nomination, a plan that failed of fulfillment.

LESS ZEAL FOR SPEED

PERHAPS you haven't thought of it, but will readily recognize the fact that railroads no longer are seeking to break speed records. It was in 1903 that the record of 112.5 miles an hour speed was established and it has never been equalled. It has never been approached even and now no effort is being made to that end.

No longer do the fastest trains between New York and Chicago traverse the distance in 18 hours; they take 20 for the job, because it has been found that the longer time is fast enough and is far safer. The average speed of trains has been increased, but it has been found to be in the interest of successful operation of railroads to preserve near an even rate for all rather than have some excessively fast trains, because guarding the safety of such makes other trains slower than they otherwise need be.

Locomotives are larger and stronger than when records were made and probably could go as fast as anything in the past, but in the interest of safety they are not let out. The design now is to know not how fast they can go, but how fast will safely permit them to go. The taking of chances on speed are left to other forms of locomotion. Thus 100 years of experience in railroading has taught that it does not pay to go too fast, that there is a mean speed which makes for economy of operation as well as safety.

However, the railway locomotive has ceased to be a synonym for speed. The airplane has robbed it of the distinction. The record of 193 miles an hour for a plane is so far ahead of anything possible on the earth that there are no contestants with the aircraft for the honor of being the swiftest vehicle built by man. It may be possible to exceed that record in air travel, though it would seem to be rapid enough to meet the demands of the most ardent speed fiend. Yet it may prove true that there is a limit in air travel beyond which it is not safe to go and that a mean speed is fast enough.

Moderation in any form of travel is wisest, and it is to be hoped that the examples of the railroads in being satisfied not to attack records already established will be imitated by others, whatever the manner of their vehicle, whose present ambition is to punch holes in the air at a faster rate than has hitherto been done.

ROMANCE DIES EVERY YEAR

EVERY now and then some wiseacre has a blue day and tries to take it out on the race by chronicling the death of romance. The latest deathblow, some one discovers, is inflicted by so simple a thing as a gyroscope stabilizer to keep vessels from rolling except in heavy storms. The romance of the sea was about over, anyhow, he says, and this is one of "the final coffin nails."

Romance died when steam replaced sails, when the railroad crowded out coach travel, when the telephone spoiled all the situations founded on notes that were never delivered. The truth is romance dies every time some one discovers that his digestion is more important than his emotions. He doesn't want to be alone, so he kills off romance for all the world.

It doesn't bother anybody very much. The young lovers, who in the old romantic days could never have gone on a horseback expedition, are taking the trolley to the country for a summer holiday. The poor lad for whom we are asked to grieve because he can not dream of the joys of piracy is busy listening to talk that goes on a thousand miles at sea.

Romance must have died long ago if it had been made of iron armor or viking galleys or of muzzle loaders and sailing vessels. These things it used, but it still thrives when they are gone. The poor soul who tells us romance is dead but makes unwitting confession of the poverty to which his own life has come.

ON BEING PUNCTUAL

IF you can not always be right, you can always be punctual. Of all the virtues none is so popular as punctuality. Of all human traits the most unpopular is habitual tardiness. Should some one take exceptions to such an application of the expression "human traits," let it be said that few in number are the religiously punctual.

The man has not lived who has not been late. True, there are many who observe the strictest rules of punctuality, but the great mass of men, women and children are more often late than on time or early. This is doubly significant because it is conceded by all that it is as easy to be early as to be late, and much more satisfying.

Some measure of the value placed by civilization on punctuality is offered by the stress placed on it in the schools from the first to the last years of training, by industry, commerce and business, by all military organizations, by individuals and in every phase of human life where there is any attempt at system, and in fact wherever two or more people are in contact.

Nothing so irritates us as being compelled to wait for a delayed train or a person who is late for an appointment. Wags and wits have, since time immemorial, reckoned woman as the most flagrant violator of this rule of etiquette. Husbands and sweethearts can best prove the truth or fallacy of this but the world well knows it is a fault common to all.

In our social intercourse we are irritated by tardiness mainly because we lack the virtue of patience, but when we are thus piqued it is a good time to ponder on the position of the employer who suffers material loss through the tardiness of employees, and on the necessity of school discipline and factory and office time clocks.

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

BY O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, June 20.—Thoughts while strolling around New York: Broadway's noon hour rush. News, noise and jazz. Crooks and crusaders. Dead heads and poets. Weird rocco phrases. Ladies to whom men are as minutes. The unceasing drone of folly. Lavish and lethal.

How the Claridge has changed. New York's most typical cosmopolite—Karl Kitchen. Mud taxis. A famous thief-chaser. Long, lean and sardonic. Twice the underworld sent out the word to "get" him. Vanderbilt folk snatching hurried breakfasts.

A touch of back home—gingham frocks. The two blind brothers who sell flowers. White tiled cafeterias. As brittle-bright as a searchlight. Julius Tannen in white flannels. New summer chaos with dancing girls. Wonder how I'd look in a Palm Beach suit?

There's Richard Le Gallienne. The blast of heat from subway gratings. And the twenty street-gamblers fishing in them for lost coins. The lumpy cry of the rap war tankard. "Joining out—fast cut to Corey and Chinatown." The patient women decoys sitting inside knitting.

Brownie's old chop house. With its ancient theatre programs, auto-graphed pictures of stars and steel lined walls. Billy Guard of the Metropolitan and his impetuous Van Dyke. The old store that has been having a "Closing Out Fire Sale" for 15 years.

Another metropolitan wonder—a horse. Shining Greely Square. Old apple women resting from their long journeys through horse holdings. The venerable Waldorf carriage-caller who looks like Chauncey Depew. The after lunch lull in Fifth Avenue.

Strolling garment workers. Yiddish extras. A parrot escapes from a bird store. And a cordon of police are called. New York is the most curious minded city in the world. What goes unnoticed on Main Street creates wild excitement here.

One of the expert hair boppers on Fifth Avenue has a striped nurse in attendance. Half of the women who come to him to have their hair bobbed for the first time have uncontrollable bursts of grief and hysteria. The first few snips of the scissors generally cause the emotional outburst. As he takes his snips he says "Grit, grit, grit."

Many women have fainted at the sudden realization their "crowning glory" was being uncrowned. One woman rushed out of his shop one day as he had just finished his work and became so hysterical an ambulance had to be called.

To theatre ticket sellers they are known as "walk-aways." They are the people who walk away leaving change. The sum total of this negligence amounts to thousands of dollars yearly. When the Broadway gate benefit for Nellie Ravell, the theatre treasurer decided to give one day's receipts of the "walk-aways" to her. It amounted to nearly $400.

Men leave more change than women. Many of the theatre owners send "walk-aways" money to various act funds. Almost anyone can have a lunch-corn or dinner in his honor in New York. There are at least five persons who sponsor affairs for anyone who has the idea he is popular enough for a public tribute. At one dinner given recently it was discovered that only 10 of the 150 guests knew the notable guest of the evening. They paid $20 a plate merely to bask in his presence.

At a dinner given on lower Fifth Avenue the other evening the host used a jade service. Under each plate was an electric light that gave brilliance to the beauty of the stone. It is said the dinner cost $8500 a plate, which is up to the moment the most expensive meal ever served in New York. Copyrighted, 1924, by the McNaught Syndicate, Inc.

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING—BY BRIGGS

WHEN YOU ARRIVE IN TOWN AFTER A LONG ABSENCE WITHOUT NOTIFYING YOUR SWEETIE.

- AND YOU HUSTLE RIGHT OVER TO THE FIRST PHONE AND RING HER NUMBER.

- AND AS YOU WAIT AND WAIT FOR AN ANSWER YOU WONDER WHY YOU WERE SO STUPID THAT YOU DIDN'T NOTIFY HER.

- WHAT IN SAM HILL WERE YOU THINKING OF-- YOU COULD JUST AS EASILY DROPPED HER A LINE-- AND NOW SHE'S PROBABLY GOT ANOTHER BEAU, AND--

"WHAT! IS TH-TH-THAT YOU PEGGY? YES-YES- THIS IS RALPH-- ETC, ETC."

- AND SHE IS RIGHT THERE MAKING ARRANGEMENTS TO MEET YOU, AND CUTTING ALL OTHER DATES AND, AN-AN- OH-H-H-BOY!! AIN'T IT A GR-R-RAND AND GLU-U-ORIOUS FEELIN'?

"I don't know. The next question is, What is the right thing?" "Well?"

"And I fear it will take a long law suit to settle that."

No Time for Sight Seeing
"And did you see service in France?" asked the lady of the house to the young colored man who had applied to her for a job.

"No, ma'am," was the reply. "I've been busy all the time diggin' trenches an' fightin'."

'pants' am an uncommon noun, because pants are singular at the top and plural at the bottom."—Brown Transcript.

The hardest thing is to pay too much for something like we didn't care. Housework an' fresh air used to turn out some pretty good lookin' natural finish gals.
